

Please read this disclaimer (“disclaimer”) carefully before using (“website”, “service”) operated by Dignity Doula LLC (“us”, “we”, “our”).

All information posted on this website is merely for educational and informational purposes. The medical information on this website is provided as an information resource only and is not to be used or relied on for any diagnostic or treatment purposes. This information does not create any patient-provider relationship and should not be used as a substitute for professional diagnosis and treatment. Should you decide to act upon any information on this website, you do so at your own risk.

Please consult your health care provider before making any health care decisions or for guidance about a specific medical condition. Dignity Doula LLC expressly disclaims responsibility, and shall have no liability, for any damages, loss, injury, or liability whatsoever suffered because of your reliance on the information contained in this website.

Testimonials appearing on this website are received in various forms via a variety of submission methods. The testimonials reflect the real-life experiences of individuals who used our services. However, individual results may vary. We do not claim, nor should the reader assume, that any individual experience recounted is typical or representative of what any other consumer might experience. Testimonials are not necessarily representative of what anyone else using our services may experience.

While the information on this website has been verified to the best of our abilities, we cannot guarantee that there are no mistakes or errors.

We reserve the right to change this policy at any time, of which you will be promptly updated. If you want to make sure that you are up to date with the latest changes, we advise you to frequently visit this page.
